

SIGHT-READING FOR SINGERS

ONLINE SUMMER MUSIC CAMP

Become a better singer by learning to sight-read your music—even if you've never played an instrument.

Sponsored by diverse harmony™

The Nation's First Queer–Straight Alliance Youth Chorus

FREE—No Cost to Attend!

Eight-week program led by Artistic Director Allen Leslie

Zoom presentation on consecutive Tuesdays at 7:00pm for 45–60 minutes, beginning on July 6th and running through August 24th.

Topics include:

1. Rhythm reading (beat and the subdivided beat)
2. Understanding time signature (simple and compound)
3. Understanding and reading intervals (minor and major scale)
4. Sight-reading for the singer (three basic steps)
5. Choral harmony (four-part singing and where you fit in)
6. Understanding key signature (the circle of fifths and constructed scales)
7. Basic keyboard (playing my part)
8. Composition (creating using beat, rhythm, intervals and harmony)

Sign up forms are on our web site: www.diverseharmony.org

